

LET'S GO FOR A STORY WALK MAP

Mamie by Tania McCartney

Enjoy walking? Enjoy reading? How about both at the same time?

Reading and walking both have great health benefits and we've combined them to create a walking route with a twist. Follow Australian author Tania McCartney's beautifully illustrated children's story, with a page to read at each stop.

Note: If the sign at any of the stops are missing or damaged, please let us know by calling 6205 9000 or emailing library.customerinfo@act.gov.au

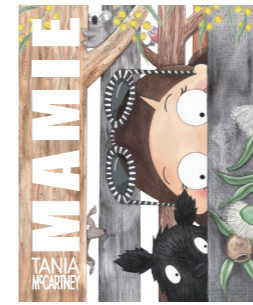

Story & illustrations used with permission of the author & publisher

Tania McCartney, Australian author, illustrator and editor, would live inside a book if she could. Her story Mamie, celebrates the life of renowned children's author/illustrator, May Gibbs. To us, she is May Gibbs, creator of Snugglypot and Cuddlepie. But to her family, she was known as 'Mamie'.

Author/Illustrator: Tania McCartney | www.taniamccartney.com

Publisher: HarperCollins Children's Books Australia

Start at tree near Girrawheen Street Car Park, opposite Lonsdale Street

Don't miss any part of this wonderful story. Follow the route to find all ten stops and take a photo at your favourite one. Share it with us on Facebook:

@LibrariesACT | @TaniaMcCartneyAuthor

Image credit: Maree Azzopardi